Fourth Battalion, K. S. G.

The Fourth Battalion of the Kentucky State Guards will go into camp at Grayson Springs, July 21st. Maj. Crump has made all necessary arrangements for the annual encampment. The battalion is composed of five companies, viz: Bowling Green Guards, Russellville Guards, Lewis Guards, Glasgow, Owensboro Guards and "Co. D." Hopkinsville. Besides these the Bullitt Artillery, of Paducah and the Proctor Knott Guards, of Bardonia, will be in attendance.

The Fourth Battalion has an enlistment of 230 men and its organization is as follows: Major, M. H. Crump, of Bowling Green; Adjutant, Lieutenant Geo. V. Triplett, of Owensboro; Quartermaster, Lieutenant J. Whit. Potter, of Bowling Green; Surgeon, Dr. J. O. Carson, of Bowling Green; Chaplain, Rev. J. L. Caldwell; Sergeant Major, R. M. Warden, of Russellville; Quartermaster Sergeant, Jno. G. Ellis, of Hopkinsville.

"Co. D," commanded by Capt. W. E. Smith, will leave for Grayson about the 20th of July. The company is now one of the best drilled ones in the battalion and about 30 of the boys will go.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Solomon, of Owensboro, and Rev. Dr. T. G. Keen, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, exchanged pulpits last Sunday morning and evening. Dr. Solomon preached two able and profound ser-

Corn is knee high and growing rapidly.

The Postell building on Court street is going up rapidly.

Don't forget the races at Dawson on the 27th.

The closing exercises of Crofton Academy took place last Friday.

Knott and Morrow have changed their dates to speak here. Morrow will speak July 2 and Knott July 5.

Hon. Jas. Breathitt, Republican nominee for the Legislature, spoke at Crofton last Saturday afternoon.

The wheat crop will fall considerably behind an average crop, in spite of all reports to the contrary.

A severe wind and hail storm, followed by a heavy rain, varied the monotony of the weather Thursday morning before day.

Mr. Jas. Younglove was thrown from a wagon Saturday by a runaway team and had his collar bone broken.

The opening races of the Dawson Race Course Co., begin on the 27th; a large crowd will be present and a good time is anticipated.

People are flocking from all parts of the country to attend the grand opening races at Dawson on the 27th of June. Don't miss the opportunity to visit this renowned watering place.

The rink will be open every Monday and Friday night and no other nights. Ladies will skate free on Tuesday afternoons hereafter instead of Mondays. The price will remain unchanged.

Now is your time to get something good for a little money. McCamy, Bonte & Co., have for sale some light rockaways and buggies, second hand, but as good as new, of their own make, which they will warrant and guarantee to be first-class in every particular.

A small bag of domestic, or any thin cloth, filled with salt dipped in hot water and laid across the back, just in front of the hips, is said to be a sure cure for blot in cattle, unless the animal is too far gone. It will cure in ten minutes, and when this remedy fails the knife is the only one that need be tried.

The Hopkinsville colored baseball club unbowed with a spirit of conquest, visited Clarksville Thursday to try issues with the Clarksville colored baseball club. The game was attended by a number of whites.

Clarksville Base Ball Club, 43, Hopkinsville " " " 37.—Clarksville Democrat.

The contract to build the new Episcopal church, on the corner of Court and Liberty street, has been awarded to Mr. Robt. Mills. The church will be a very handsome one and will cost $7,500 without the pews, altars, etc. The design was made by Mr. C. G. Roseplanter, the architect, of Clarksville, Tenn. The building has been commenced and will be completed by Nov. 1st.

The smallpox at the Asylum has disappeared, but whether permanently or not remains to be seen. The two cases reported convalescent last week, afterwards died, making four deaths out of four cases since May 23rd. The men who died were named Shaw, Borin, Price and Anderson. No other cases have appeared and Dr. Rodman expresses the hope that there will be no further trouble from the disease.

George Cayce, of Empire, attempted to cut Wilson Canaler's throat at that place after he had quit work one day last week. Canaler had sharpened his knife and was testing it by cutting the hair on his hand when Cayce walked up and without a word cut a deep gash along his jawbone. No explanation was given for the murderous onslaught. Cayce walked away without being arrested.

The Louisville & Nashville railroad will sell excursion tickets between all stations on its lines on the 3d and 4th of July, which will be good to return up to mid-night July 5th, at one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be sold only to stations from which you can return within the limits specified above. This is done to afford persons a cheap rate to visit their friends, or take trips for recreation on the nation's birth day.

In another column appears the advertisement of Cerulean Springs which are now in thorough order, and Mr. Harper announces that the season has opened. No words of ours are needed to commend Cerulean to the public nor to praise Mr. Harper as a landlord or Mrs. Harper as a landlady. The Springs are known far and wide and the proprietor has made a reputation for his hotel second to that of no watering place in Kentucky. We may confidently expect the present season to be an unusually successful one, as a number of guests are already there and others have engaged rooms for the near future.

The new enterprise of Messrs. Jake Armstrong & Co. who have opened up at the Hartee store on Bridge street, is one that will not only be lucrative to its projectors, but of great convenience to housekeepers. They are selling patent adjustable stove linings, and repairs for any stove that is made. No matter how badly a stove may be broken they can repair it at a trifling cost and save the purchase of a new one. They are doing work for many of our best citizens, and giving universal satisfaction. They own several States and sixty counties in this State and will dispose of country or State rights

No Insurance Company shows a larger increase, by the Commissioner's Report for 1882, than the Southern Mutual Life Insurance Company, represented by Dr. W. F. Patton, in this city. The increase over 1881 is more than fifty per cent. The company has paid out to policy holders, in dividends, endowments and death claims, and holds invested for them, a sum greater than has been received from the policy holders. The company has paid its death claims with such promptness that it has particularly commended itself to the people everywhere. The Southern Mutual is a Kentucky company and is managed by directors chosen from this State. Mr. S. T. Wilson, general agent, has been coming to Hopkinsville for 17 years and no insurance man is better or more favorably known. Dr. Patton is the local agent and those desiring to insure their lives should call on him and insure in a Kentucky company and foster home enterprises. The magnificent showing of the Southern Mutual also shows that it is one of the best and safest companies to insure in. Call on or address Dr. Patton before taking out a policy in any other company.

We feel that we owe our readers on the Lafayette and Longview mail routes an apology for the failure to send out their papers last Tuesday. A rush of job work and the lessening of the force in the mechanical department, threw the paper behind, and although every effort was made to get the issue out on time, it could not be done before the postoffice closed Monday night, and consequently the early mails failed to go out Tuesday. This is the second time in four years that this has occurred and we regret very much that it should have happened, especially at the time it did.

Miss Minnie Lander, who was one of the teachers of the public schools last session and who was unanimously re-elected for the next session, will shortly hand in her resignation, acting under the advice of her physician who thinks she would jeopardize her already impaired health by teaching another session. Miss Lucy McGowan, of Louisville, was in the city last week for the purpose of being examined for the vacancy which will be made. Miss McGowan is a daughter of Mr. John McGowan, formerly a merchant of this city.

Dr. A. B. Barker, the skillful oculist and aurist, who has been at the Phoenix Hotel for three weeks, will leave for Clarksville to-day. He has affected a number of permanent cures upon diseased eyes, and has had to turn away a number of patients for want of time to operate on them. He makes a specialty of throat diseases also and has successfully treated a number of cases. He will visit this city again in October.

Willie, a little son of Mr. Wm. Withers, fell while skating at the rink one night last week and broke one bone of his arm. The fracture was painful but not severe and the sufferer was able to be out in a few days, with his arm in a sling.

The Princeton and Cadiz Turnpike company is erecting a temporary toll office near Mr. George Wood's, and will begin charging proportionate rates of toll next week.

The first Lieutenant of Co. D. having offered his resignation, last Tuesday, Second Lieutenant, E. L. Ellis was promoted and Dr. F. H. Clarke, elected Second Lieutenant from the ranks.

Mr. M. W. Grissam is having his residence thoroughly remodeled and improved while his family is visiting in Todd county.

The rooms now occupied by Dr. R. R. Bourne, the dentist, over Thompson's, will be for rent next month. Apply to Meacham & Wilgus.

Semi-annual settlements will be the order of the day next week.

The dull season has come and the merchants are wearing long faces.

The Bank of Hopkinsville building will soon be ready for occupancy.

Southern watermelons and early peaches are on the market.

CASEY.

Col. Sam. Taliaferro from Guthrie, was at the Station on a business trip last week.

Misses Bessie and Willie Lloyd are from Liberty College, for their summer vacation.

Miss Mamie Henry, from South Christian, is visiting Miss Belle Henry, this week.

Miss Josie Rutherford, of Hopkinsville, is the guest of Miss Hattie Kelley this week.

Miss Lula Marshall, from Leroy, Tenn., will spend the summer with friends here.

Wallace E. Embury, from Garretttsburg, bought 5000 pounds of the wool sold at the sale on June 7th. He shipped to Philadelphia.

Robt. Frazier, from Greenville, Ky., visited relatives in the Station neighborhood last week.

Judge Boone and Miss Mattie Boone, of Elkton, visited friends here last week.

The flies are so bad just now that even your religious (?) correspondents are tempted to use the terse expression of Josh Billings and say "dam flies."

Harry M. Kenderdine, the popular inspector of agents for the L. & N. Railway, was at the Station Saturday.

Kelley's Mill is shut down for the present. Deacon Ballard and the rest of the boys are all busily engaged in the wheat harvest.

Mrs. S. H. Burbridge of Hopkinsville, and Miss Mildred Wharton of ston Henry last week.

Thursday morning about 2 o'clock we had quite a hail storm lasting for about fifteen minutes, falling irregularly; some of the stones were larger than quills' eggs.

After the Grange sale was over on the 7th, six "hill tigers" from "out north" filled up with liquor and concluded to take the town, a la Texas cow boy. George Bacon, a quiet, orderly colored man was their first target, but it happened that George was the wrong man, and although slashed at with knives and shot at a time or two, he cleared the yard of the whole six, after giving two of them a black eye apiece and capturing a pistol belonging to the crowd. Geo. refused to return the pistol even after they had offered him money, and a crowd of George's friends collecting, the "hill tigers" concluded they had had enough of taking the town, and departed for their homes. Comments are unnecessary. SALLIE.

If Catarrh has destroyed your sense of smelling and hearing, Hall's Catarrh cure will cure you. 75 cents per bottle. Druggist sell it.

CHURCH HILL.

The angel of death has again entered our midst and claimed for its victim one of our brightest jewels. Mrs. Compton died the 11th of June. She had been suffering for some months with her throat which caused her death. She came among us two years ago a widow with a little girl, Mattie. She had made friends that will long mourn her loss and may they heed Bro. Bigham's advice and show their love and esteem by watching and guarding the little rose-bud that is now too young to know her loss.

Misses Lula Pierce and Lizzie Owen returned last week from Russellville high school.

The farmers are quite busy preparing to cut wheat. Tobacco plants are scarce; but three-fourths of the crop is out.

Miss Annie Howell, of Providence, Tenn., is visiting Miss Lizzie Panky; both have just left school with honors of B. F. C.

Miss Mollie Wilson, of Henderson, is visiting Mrs. J. C. Gary, Jr.

A good many of the farmers have sold their wheat at a dollar.

The Grange Stock sale was quite a success; long before noon the grounds were a mass of living beings, every one bent on having a good time, when dinner was announced, all hailed it with delight, for they saw a table of three hundred feet or more piled up with the good things that the ladies know so well how to prepare.

I will say no more as I saw you, Charlie, doing justice to the dinner, so I know you will give the programme of the business of the day.

And now, Mr. Editor, I understand that ere this goes to press, that you will have laid to the hymeneal altar one of Hopkinsville's little belles. May your lives and fortunes be as bright and joyous as the day upon which you vowed to love and cherish through storm as well as sunshine, and when old age creeps on, may it be said of you two "there is a couple that have fulfilled life's mission and are waiting to be called to a home above," is the wish of your

AUNT PATSY.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

The number for July abounds with most interesting and instructive reading. "The Longest Span in the world," by A. V. Abbott, has fourteen illustrations of the Brooklyn Bridge, of which full details are given. Cornelius Mathews contributes "The Poet of home—John Howard Payne"; this number also contains an unpublished story and poem by Payne. There is a sketch of "Assam," the great Tea Country of India; an article by Mrs. V. T. Polk, "San Antonio and its old Missions"; one by Marc Vallette, of peculiar interest, with illustrations of the "strange Funeral Rites" in different countries. There are stories and sketches by Oscanian, N. Robinson, etc., several charming poems, and a miscellany of a varied and pleasing character. The great serial "The Beautiful Countess of Clairville" is continued. "Winter Quarters" is the title of the colored frontispiece. Twenty-five cents a copy, $3 a year, postpaid. Address, Mrs. Frank Leslie, publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Nelson & Jesup sold this week 73 hds. of tobacco as follows: 11 hds. good to fine Leaf; 11 75, 10 10, 9 70, 9 65, 9 60, 9 45, 9 25, 9 05, 9 24 hds. medium to good leaf 8 75 to 7 25. 30 hds. common leaf 7 00 to 6 00. 8 hds. lugs, $6 25 to 4. We quote the market very firm and strong on all grades.

Sales by Buckner & Woodruff, June 30 and 21, of 138 hds. tobacco as follows. 34 hds. medium to good leaf 7 10 to 9 00. 48 hds. common low and mixed leaf 5 80 to 7 00. 22 hds. good lugs 4 75 to 5 00. 34 hds. common and trashy lugs 4 00 to 4 50.

Market rules strong and regular with an advance on lugs and fat German style of leaf. We have moved our office to our new warehouse on Main street where we shall be glad to meet our old friends and customers and the tobacco trade generally, and any other planters or dealers who may wish to patronize us.

Sales by Abernathy & Co. for the past two weeks 207 hds. as follows: 57 hds. good leaf $10 00 to 7 00. 110 hds. common leaf from $5 50 to 7 00. 40 hds. lugs from $1 00 to 5 50. Market strong with light receipts indicating the crop nearly marketed.

Farmers being busy in their wheat crops only a small crowd attended the sale. Next sale Saturday July 14th 1883.

This has truly been a year of calamities and one of the greatest the press has had to record was the killing of 202 children at Sunderland, Eng., last week. A sleight of hand performance had been given to about 1,200 children, who were in the gallery of the hall and in passing down the steps only one could go down at a time. In making their exit one of the children fell and was unable to rise and a stampede followed. The cries of the injured frightened the others and they crowded pell mell over the mangled mass until the way was blocked up with dead bodies. 202 children from five to fourteen years of age were killed and many more wounded.

Hundreds were taken away bruised and maimed with their clothing almost torn off in the struggle to escape. Five children of one family were killed, and in many instances parents with several children were left childless. The affair was horrible in the extreme and the more lamentable because there was not the slightest cause for it.

The Henderson News has not hoisted the Democratic ticket to its mast-head. Is it an oversight, or are we to understand that the News will not support the nominee?—South Kentuckian.

There is a business view of the question. The candidates on the Democratic ticket, it is not unfair to say, are seeking the offices for which they are named more for the honor and profit attached to them than for the sake of the Democratic party. In this view we do not see that newspaper publishers are under the slightest obligation to give them free advertising by printing the ticket regularly, at the mast-head, or in any other column of the paper.—Covington Commonwealth.

It matters not what motives may have prompted the nominees to seek office, they are the candidates of their party, and as they are strangers to the great mass of voters it is proper that party organs should keep their names before the people, in order that they may vote intelligently. Publishers should be willing to give the Democratic ticket all the "free advertising" it needs, if by so doing the popular vote will be increased and the party benefited.

At the 14th annual reunion of the veterans of the war of 1812, held at Paris, Ky., last week only eight members responded to the roll-call. They were the following: Dr. C. C. Graham, Louisville, 99 years; Thomas Jones, Paris, 91 years; Robt. M. Campbell, Winchester 90 years; Gilead Evans, Nicholas county 89 years; Dr. Perrin, Cynthia, 89 years; Moore Johnson, Mt. Sterling, 88 years; Silas M. Berry, Scott county, 88 years; Dr. J. G. Chinn, Lexington, 86 years.

Only one member of the association, —Peter Lashbrook, of Mason county —has died since the last meeting.

Thos. Moonlight is the name of the adjutant general of Kansas. As he is young and handsome, all the girls out there like to be met by Moonlight alone.—Breckenridge News.

Lieutenant Hunt is to marry Miss Deum, of Washington City soon. He had better not beat that Drum, or he will have to hunt a new boarding house to get rid of the noise it will make.—State Journal.

It is about time for ministers and editors to commence thinking about taking their summer vacations, and "thinking" about it is about as far from home as the editor will get.—Oil City Blizzard.

Mr Carpenter made a speech during a serenade to the Star-route gang after the verdict. "Give Brewster hell," shouted some one in the crowd. "I never anticipate the work of the Almighty," was Mr Carpenter's response.—Courier Journal.

A Tennessee landlord has just been forced to pay $700 for kissing an Indiana woman who was a guest at his hotel. As it is only ten cents to kiss the prettiest girl at a church fair, this man will never cease to kick himself for his financial folly.—Owensboro Post.

Fulton, Ky., has a man named Abner Field Marshall Prince Cartwright Rastopshin Brigation Allen. A man saw his name in a paper and taking for a cent of a patent barbed wire fence rode forty miles to close a contract for a four mile fence for his farm.—Bowling Green Gazette.

The Lexington Transcript mentions a young woman it saw on the street hugging a lamp post, and intimates that she was drunk. No witnesses needed. The mere fact of her hugging a lamp post is enough—if there was a man in town.—Sunday Argus.

Yesterday morning we picked up a letter on our front stairs which commenced with "My Sweet Geranium." That is not our name, nor is it the name of any one in this office, so far as we know. If Mr. Sweet Geranium will call at the editor's desk he can get his letter.—Paducah Journal.

Said Mr. Blaine to young Mr. Belmont: "Do you know, sir, that up in Portland, where I live they hang jackasses and Jews together?" said young Mr. Belmont to Mr. Blaine: "It is a fortunate thing for you and I sir that we are in Washington instead of Portland."—Breckenridge News.

Mr. James Jams, sometime mentioned by irreverent persons as Mr. James Preserves, has served on more juries than the one that tried the Star-route fellows. There is nowhere a more ready patriot than Mr. Jams, and his services at the polls, as well as in the jury-box, are too well known to be praised in a mere paragraph.—This and That.

The Paris Kentuckian says that the father of Col. T. Z. Morrow, Republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky, was Alexander Morrow, a hotel-keeper at Paris. He and President Inaine, of the Northern Bank, were such opposites in politics that at a revival at the Presbyterian church the pastor called on all in favor of the Lord to stand up. The entire congregation promptly arose, but Mr. Inaine, seeing Alexander Morrow up, at once sat down, saying: "Alex. Morrow never was right."—Paducah News.

Miss Selina Fetter, the Louisville actress, who visited this city a year or two ago, made her debut before a critical Chicago audience last week and acquitted herself creditably.

Things the Democrats Would like to Know.

How high Thos. L. Jones kicked before he fell into the arms of his noble kinsman, Richard A. Jones?

How a man who makes a claim to votes cast in violation of instructions from the Owen Democracy in convention assembled, can consistently claim the pot black?

How a man who withdraws his nag from a race, or the home stretch can claim he ought to have the stakes?

If it is unfair to win a nomination after all opponents, have been retired from the race?

If a nomination by acclamation nominates? and if so, where the cry of fraud comes in, except at the expense of the man who is badly enough demoralized to raise it?

Whether at the end of a call of counties delegates have not a right to give their votes, if they want to, and whether a presiding officer is not bound to give them a reasonable time and opportunity to do so?

Whether the water on the wheel of the mill will ever come back to grind out another grist?—Louisville Democrat.

Senator Logan's Niece.

Albuquerque, N. M., June 11.—Santa Fe, especially speaking is just now raked over coals by the Democrats. Eva Cunningham is the niece of Mrs. Gen. Jno. A. Logan. She is inexperienced in the ways of the world having been shut in a convent all her life and never been permitted to freely cultivate the society of gentlemen. Some time since while a guest of Postmaster Tucker she opened a second story window flirtation with Sergeant S. S. Errett, of the Twenty-second infantry.

Next, appointments were made, Mrs. Tucker always being under the impression that her little son Loyon was out for walk with Miss Cunningham when in fact that young lady had left him at play and strolled off alone to meet her lover. Finally it leaked out and fearing the storm was about to burst Sergeant Errett and Miss Cunningham slipped quietly away about a week ago and were secretly married.

The secret was kept until Friday when the storm came. The young lady was called on to explain. This she did by a confession of her secret marriage. What followed is unknown precisely, but this much is a fact. Senator Logan said he did not mean to have any such—d-d nonsense about him. Sergeant Errett was summoned, a minister was called in again, and in the presence of the household Miss Cunningham and her soldier boy lover were declared husband and wife.

Nothing so simple and perfect for coloring as the Diamond Dyes. For carpet rugs better and cheaper than any other dye-stuffs.

"Mean people take advantage of their neighbor's difficulties to annoy them." Mean diseases, such as piles, rheumatism, constipation, dyspepsia, malaria, lame backs, etc., take advantage of people's exposures and attack them. It is then that Kidney-Wort appears on the field and by its timely agency puts to rout this flock of evil ailments. It is a friend in need and therefore a friend indeed.

And She Is.

Glasgow Times.

If we can be allowed to tell the truth, and for once to put the Satan to Majesty to the blush, we will say that the nominating speeches of the Louisville Convention were the most inferior specimens of Kentucky oratory it was ever our luck to hear. Mr. McKenzie's nomination of Knott was the one real brilliant in this cluster of paste-diamonds. It was a superb speech. Modest in wording, elegant in diction, glistening with living eloquence and bright with noble ideas couched in choicest language as they fell warm and fervid from the lips of the impassioned speaker, it was one of the finest oratorical efforts to which we ever listened. The Second District can well afford to be proud of Mr. McKenzie.

A Fashion paper says: "Gathered waists are still very much in favor with young ladies." They are with young gentlemen also.

With patience we hope to induce the Hopkinsville Kentuckian to do The Commonwealth justice. By indirection the Kentuckian charged us with encouraging bolting in the nomination of Proctor Knott. In reply we showed that the Commonwealth accepted the nomination within a few minutes after it had been announced at Louisville. Our Hopkinsville contemporary could not gaudy the fact, but unwilling to forego the pleasure of finding fault with us, now talks about our tardiness in falling into line! If there was any tardiness it resulted from the delay in the electric flash which brought us news of Knott's nomination. Within three minutes after the receipt of the news the forms of the Commonwealth, containing the concise declaration "Knott will do," were on the press.—Covington Commonwealth.

We have no desire to do you any injustice and are glad to know that we placed a wrong construction upon the Commonwealth's utterance. As the convicts would say to Governor Blackburn "we beg pardon." Will you emulate the example of his inefficiency and grant it?

After a trial which lasted for more than six months—the longest on record—the alleged Star route thieves were acquitted last week, at Washington. Dorsey and Brady were the principal ones and there are several other indictments against the latter.

The Bad and Worthless

are never imitated or counterfeited. This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is proof positive that the remedy intended is of the highest value. As soon as it has been tested and proved by the whole world that Hop Bitters was the purest, best and most valuable family medicine on earth, many imitations sprang up and began to tell the notices which were the same as Hop Bitters. All such pretended remedies or cures, no matter what their style or name is, and especially those with the word "Hop" or "Hoppy" in their name or in any way connected with them or their name, are imitations or counterfeits. Beware of them. Touch none of them. Use nothing but genuine Hop Bitters, with a bunch of cluster of green Hops on the white label. Trust nothing else. Drugists and dealers have been quickly refuted, and in about a year's time the Hop Bitters is now being used by the millions of people who are weary of trying to induce suffering invalids to use their stuff instead, expecting to make money out of the credit and good name of H. B. Many others started nostrums put up in similar style to H. B., with variously devised names in which the word "Hop" or "Hoppy" were used in a way to induce people to believe they were the same as Hop Bitters. REST not, life is sweeping by, go on, and before you know it, you are old, and you are alone, and you are suffering, and you are dying. This is the fate of those who do not take care of themselves. They are the ones who are the most miserable and the most wretched of the human race. They are the ones who are the most deserving of pity and of sympathy. They are the ones who are the most deserving of help and of aid. They are the ones who are the most deserving of love and of affection. They are the ones who are the most deserving of respect and of honor. They are the ones who are the most deserving of praise and of glory. They are the ones who are the most deserving of fame and of power. They are the ones who are the most deserving of wealth and of riches.
